

people. They are not sincere in their work. The Government can certainly help these poor people through the Leather Board. The Leather Board would have helped as many people as the Land Reforms is going to help, but they are not sincere and they are only making a show of trying to help the Harijans. I can understand an honest enemy but I cannot understand a dishonest friend. I am sorry I have to say this.

SRI M. MALLIKARJUNASWAMY (Minister for Public Works).—So, the Hon'ble Member was a dishonest friend of the Harijans all these years.

SRI DODDA THIMMAIAH.—I have got lot of respect for men like Sri Mallikarjunaswamy but even he has not been able to raise this matter in the Cabinet.

SRI M. MALLIKARJUNASWAMY.—How does he know that

SRI DODDA THIMMAIAH.—He could not rise to the occasion and I hope he will do so shortly.
